

Reference Laboratory Qualifications

Florida's Blood Centers, Inc, Reference Laboratory is accredited by the American Association of Blood Banks (AABB), accredited by the Health Care Financing Administration (HCFA), licensed by the Agency for Health Care Administration (AHCA), and licensed and registered by the Food and Drug Administration, U.S. Department of Health and Human Services.

The FBC Medical Director approves all methods used. Performance of testing and interpretation of results are in accordance with manufacturer's instructions and where applicable FDA-licensed or approved test kits or reagents are used. All staff are qualified to perform high complexity testing according to the CLIA-88 rules.

Michael Pratt, MS, MT(ASCP)SBB
COO / Executive VP, Technical Services

it's about life.